8. Public Forum

Mayor Price opened the public forum. Speakers:

1. Caroline Hale, former Council Member and resident at 831 Bramerton Street, spoke in opposition to the Governing Body compensation increase and receiving payment when not attending a meeting. She encouraged the Governing Body to reconsider their decision and staff to post Governing Body compensation online where it is easily accessible to the public.

2. Sheri Geisler, former Council Member and Andover resident since 1993, spoke in opposition to the Governing Body's increase in compensation and asked for the Governing Body to rescind the recent vote approving such.

3. Connie Mitton spoke regarding the Andover Senior Center growth and expressed a need for a larger facility.

4. Hellen Martin, Andover resident for 21 years and active member of the Andover Senior Center expressed a need for a larger Senior Center facility. Additionally, she spoke in support of the Andover Police and Fire Departments giving them an A+ rating and spoke in support of Senior Center Director Margit Gibbons.

5. Chris Smith, resident at the Andover trailer park, expressed concerns regarding loud noise during the concerts and the condition of the roads on Central. Mayor Price addressed the concerns regarding the road conditions.

6. Dwight Lenox, resident at 1936 N Northridge Street and Andover Senior Center cook, reported that there is a lot going on at the Senior center and requested additional funding from the City to support the growing community.

7. Scott Rackley, resident at 630 East Shade expressed support for Council Members noting the Governing Body goes above and beyond and he isn't worried about the compensation increase when you consider all the commitments that come along with the position (boards they sit on, onboarding, trainings, and Budget Workshop meetings) he also noted he is not supportive of the increase. He encouraged residents to do research on the candidates running for office in the upcoming election.

Mayor Price then closed the public forum.

Council Member Ocadiz requested this discussion continue at an upcoming workshop.

15.2 Public Sale Resolution of the City's Temporary Notes, Series A 2025

Finance Director Matt Koehn presented this item and addressed Council President Henry's question.

Council Member Hamilton presented financial calculations related to the City's largest expenditure of $47 million for the new Wastewater Treatment Plant project, noting that the City saved approximately $15 million for this project in reserves. He indicated this savings will reduce the interest burden on the community. Council Member Hamilton explained that the planning on behalf of staff has saved the community approximately $6 million in interest over the life of the loan. Council Member Hamilton emphasized the importance of saving for future utility projects to avoid passing on millions of dollars in interest debt to the next generation of citizens. The more money the City can save and contribute upfront, the less it will have to pay in interest over the life of future bonds.

Mayor Price commented on the quality of the City's staff, specifically mentioning Brian Walls, Wastewater Department Manager, for his work and attributing to the longevity of the Wastewater Treatment Plant. Mayor Price noted that staff from various departments contribute to the positive outcomes and expressed gratitude to the City staff.

Council President Henry moved, seconded by Council Member Hamilton to adopt a resolution authorizing the sale of $36,235,000 in Series A, 2025 Temporary Notes of the City of Andover, Kansas and authorizing the City of Andover's Bond Counsel and Financial Advisor to prepare the necessary notices and documents to conduct such sale.

16. Member Items

Council Member Wemmer expressed gratitude to staff for all their hard work in organizing the recent concerts and gave kudos to City Administrator Jennifer McCausland and Kathryn Ewing from ASM Global, for their recent interview with Steve McIntosh on Audacy Radio Channels, noting that they effectively represented the City and its upcoming events, particularly the concerts.

Council Member Warrington reported that the army worms are active and can cause significant damage to yards. He advised residents to be on the lookout and take action to protect their lawns.

Council Member Ocadiz reminded everyone to be mindful of school zones as the new school year begins and wished all the students and staff a wonderful school year.

Mayor Price thanked Peace Lutheran Church for inviting him and City Clerk Dana Engstrom to join their lunch meeting where they were asked a variety of questions. He also wished City Clerk Dana Engstrom a happy birthday.

Council President Henry thanked City staff for all they do for the community and reminded everyone to watch out for school zones.

Council Member Hamilton expressed his appreciation for a recent social media post by the Andover Police Department that provides an overview of the rules about the vital moments when you are required to stop for school buses, ensuring the safety of children. It's a useful resource to review to avoid traffic violations.
