3. Invocation

Doug Hodgens with Christ Church led the invocation.

4. Pledge of Allegiance

The Mayor invited all present to stand and join in the Pledge of Allegiance.

5. Public Forum

Mayor Price opened the public forum. Speakers:

1. Darren Spitzenberger and Renee Frazier residents at 216 Sweetgum Court spoke regarding the employment of an Andover Municipal Golf Course employee and the management of the Golf Course. Council Member Warrington asked if they had spoken to staff regarding the issues and encouraged them to discuss with the Oak Golf Course Management and City staff to address the concerns. Mayor Price indicated the Governing Body can't provide guidance from the bench. Council Member Wemmer encouraged the residents to reach out to City staff to discuss.
2. Roth Christopherson expressed his concerns with the management of Oaks Golf Course and inquired about the contract process and who to discuss concerns with at the City.
3. Charles McCumber, a resident in El Dorado and member at the Oaks Golf Course, indicated that he enjoys the course immensely and expressed his support for an employee that was recently terminated by the Oaks Golf management and noted the golf course looks better than he has even seen since the employee begin maintaining it.
4. Donnie Moore, Andover resident, expressed concerns with charges for recycling but doesn't use the service. At the request of Council Member Warrington, City Administrator McCausland discussed the ordinance that was approved in 2010 that mandates recycling for the City of Andover with mandatory pay, optional participation. Mayor Price reminded Mr. Moore that no changes can be made from the bench tonight on this matter.
5. Anna Warrington, resident at 1320 S. Colleen Terrace, expressed concerns regarding neighborhood pond maintenance in light of tornado damage and ongoing waterway/drainage issues from upstream. Additionally, she spoke about grant funding that her homeowner's association had desired to use for the Lakeview Heights neighborhood pond rather than for the replacement of the Lodge at Central Park. She explained how she perceives there to be discrepancies between current and previous Comprehensive Plans, particularly regarding drainage systems and their impact on existing developments. She highlighted the need for Council to prioritize the ongoing issues.
6. Cade Andrews, resident at 641 S. Allen Street, spoke regarding the proposed Thoroughbred apartments on the agenda this evening expressing concerns with noise and drainage issues. Council Member Warrington asked the applicant to address pond outfall regarding the Thoroughbred development when we get to that item on the agenda.

Mayor Price then closed the public forum.
